Keynote Speaker

TIM RYAN

Senior Partner and Chairman, PwC US

Tim Ryan is US Chairman and Senior Partner of PwC. He has over 28 years of diversified experience serving clients in the financial services industry in the US and internationally. In addition, Tim serves on PwC's US Board of Partners and Principals, and its Global Board.

Tim previously served as Vice Chair, having responsibility for PwC's strategy function and stakeholder relationships including investor relations, regulatory affairs, public policy, corporate responsibility and human capital. Prior to that, Tim led the firm's Assurance practice and before that, he led the PwC's US Financial Services Practice and Consumer Finance Group.

He has been published and quoted in numerous publications and is a frequent contributor to industry events. He plays an active role in the Center for Audit Quality — a non-partisan, non-profit group dedicated to enhancing investor confidence and public trust in the global capital markets.

Over the past year, Tim worked with a small group of CEOs to launch The CEO Action For Diversity & Inclusion™ — the largest ever CEO-driven business commitment to advance diversity and inclusion in the workplace.

Tim is a certified public accountant in Massachusetts and New York and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He serves on the Board of Trustees for the Securities and Exchange Commission Historical Society and the Children's Aid Society. He graduated from Babson College where he studied accounting and communications, and joined PwC after graduation. Tim is a Boston native, marathon runner, and proud father of six children.

ABOUT IRISH AMERICA

Since its inception in October 1985, Irish America has become a powerful vehicle for expression on a range of political, economic, social, and cultural themes that are of paramount importance to the Irish in the United States. It has helped re-establish the Irish ethnic identity in the U.S. (34.7 million according to the last U.S. census) and highlights the best political and business leaders, artists, writers, and community figures among the Irish in America.
