KEYNOTE SPEAKER

EILEEN MURRAY

CO-CEO OF BRIDGEWATER ASSOCIATES

Eileen Murray is an award-winning leader in the financial services industry and currently serves as co-CEO at Bridgewater Associates and co-chair of the management committee. She has over two decades of Wall Street experience, having held senior leadership roles at Duff Capital Advisors, Morgan Stanley, and Credit Suisse, where she was appointed the first female member of the executive board.

Eileen currently serves as a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and the Irish Arts Center. In 2015, she received an honorary doctorate from Manhattan College, from which she also holds B.S. in accounting.

One of nine children, Eileen grew up in Upper Manhattan's Dyckman Housing Project ("as diverse a community as you can imagine"). With roots in counties Cork and Galway, she credits her parents' Irish values, work ethic, and views on diversity as a key advantage doing business in a global economy. "Diversity of thought was encouraged," she says. "As a result, what I tend to focus on are commonalities, what brings people together, not the differences - which is what keeps these Irish eyes smiling."

ABOUT IRISH AMERICA

Since its inception in October 1985, Irish America has become a powerful vehicle for expression on a range of political, economic, social, and cultural themes that are of paramount importance to the Irish in the United States. It has helped re-establish the Irish ethnic identity in the U.S. (34.7 million according to the last U.S. census) and highlights the best political and business leaders, artists, writers, and community figures among the Irish in America.
